

As someone who travels between Maine and New Jersey to visit family, and has used the weather and traffic for the major cities in between, please don't let this service be cut. I was able to reroute though NYC so I didn't hit a traffic jam before I even got close to it.